

November 4, 2010

Extreme Entrepreneurship Tour is coming to Mason!

Presented by:

[what] The Extreme Entrepreneurship Tour, brought to you by the National Chamber Foundation, the Campaign for Free Enterprise, and iMADdu, is the first-ever national entrepreneurship tour. In a high-energy event with lots of networking, music, movement, and prizes, the tour features the country's top young entrepreneurs and successful local entrepreneurs from the DC Metro Area. All under 30, speakers share their personal success stories, inspiring audiences to outline plans of action that will define their entrepreneurial paths. George Mason University President Alan G. Merten will open the event with Thomas J. Donohue, President and CEO of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce. Learn more at www.extremetour.org.

[when/where] Thursday, November 4, 2010 from 1-5 PM at Dewberry Hall

[cost] Tickets are FREE thanks to our sponsors. Tickets limited. Registration is required.

[how you can get involved]

 Register to attend at www.imaddu.org

- Faculty, staff, student, & entrepreneur tickets available.

 Encourage others

- Share information about EET to friends, classes, family, and colleagues.

 Volunteer or sponsor iMADdu

- Email info@imaddu.org to assist with event promotion or for sponsorship details.

What's iMADdu?

iMADdu stands for 'I make a difference, do you?' We're a young nonprofit with a mission to empower the next generation of entrepreneurs – today's students – through apprenticeship! To learn more, visit www.imaddu.org.

November 4, 2010

Extreme Entrepreneurship Tour is coming to Mason!

American Free Enterprise. Dream Big.

Presented by:

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

[morgan first] Co-Founder and CEO of Second Glass

Morgan First was born and raised in Los Angeles, CA and headed to Boston for college where she earned her degree from Emerson College in Marketing and Entrepreneurship. After graduating she started Motion Affair Planner (MAP) BOSTON a combination local city guide and planner that she printed for 3 years and sold successfully at Barnes and Noble locations across the city before switching her full-time focus to all things wine and social media. As Co-Founder and CEO of Second Glass Morgan is the networker, the press liaison and the instigator/organizer behind Wine Riot, the first wine tasting of its kind to make learning about wine as much fun as drinking it. Morgan has been recognized for her upbeat can do attitude and success in The Boston Herald, Skirt Magazine, The Boston Globe and was most recently named one of INC Magazines 30 Under 30 Coolest Young Entrepreneurs. You can find Morgan back and forth between Boston and LA as Second Glass expands its empire.

[jason duff] Founder & CEO of Community Storage & Properties, Ltd. & COMSTOR Outdoor, Ltd.

Jason Duff is an acclaimed speaker, real estate developer and award winning Entrepreneur. Jason graduated Ohio Northern University in 2005 and is the Founder & CEO of Community Storage & Properties, Ltd. and COMSTOR Outdoor, Ltd. and serves in executive capacities to several other businesses and not-for-profit organizations. Jason has been recognized for his contributions as a real estate developer and his role in spearheading revitalization efforts contributing to millions of dollars in new growth, appreciation, and community investment. In 2005, he was awarded the prestigious Global Student Entrepreneurship Social Impact Award and was featured in numerous magazines, television and radio programs. Jason resides in Columbus, Ohio where he is currently working on his first book and pursuing plans to establish a foundation which benefits global causes and initiatives.

MODERATOR

[arel moodie] America's Top Young Speaker

PANELISTS

For detailed bios on the panelists, please visit www.imaddu.org.

[tracy foster] Founder of ONA

[tora j. matsuoka] Managing Partner of Big Fish Hospitality Group

[tom moore] Co-Founder of ROCS College Student Staffing

[mona olsen] Founder of iMADdu

What's
iMADdu?

iMADdu stands for 'I make a difference, do you?' We're a young nonprofit with a mission to empower the next generation of entrepreneurs – today's students – through apprenticeship! To learn more, visit www.imaddu.org.

